Quality of life is about the details of everyday living. From the little things, like knowing the nearest place to pick up a pint of milk, to more important matters like finding the right school or having a health centre nearby, you need to know that the community you're moving to will support you and your family, as well as being a pleasant place to live. So here's some useful information about the area around The Paddocks.

Around 12 miles north of Morpeth, the rural village of Longframlington combines convenience with a strong sense of community. The A697 runs through the village and the A1 is around five miles away, providing easy access to Alnwick and the north, as well as to Newcastle upon Tyne. Bus services to Morpeth and Newcastle pass by the development, with journey times of 20 minutes to Morpeth and less than an hour to Newcastle. A few additional buses link the village with the Scottish Borders. Trains from Alnmouth stop at Acklington Railway Station, approximately eight miles to the east, and reach Newcastle in around 40 minutes.

Amidst open countryside between the beautiful Northumberland coastline and Northumberland National Park, Longframlington is a former mining village transformed into a thriving residential community and leisure destination. Set on the edge of the village, with open fields stretching away to the west, this attractive neighbourhood of energy efficient three, four and five bedroom homes is within 12 miles of Alnwick and Morpeth and just 25 miles from Newcastle upon Tyne. Welcome to The Paddocks...

The Miller Difference

“Buying a property is one of the most important decisions in life and I am delighted that Miller Homes made it an easy one for me.”

Chris Mackenzie
Miller Home Owner

“We are so impressed with the exceptional customer service and quality of our home that we’ve recommended Miller Homes to a friend.”

Helen Moscrop
Miller Home Owner

The Miller Difference

We’re enormously proud of the homes we’ve been building for the last 80 years, and throughout that time we’ve been listening to our customers and learning from them. From insisting on the best workmanship and the highest quality materials right through to recognising our responsibilities to the environment.

During this time we’ve seen many generations of families enjoy our homes and developments, and we’ve seen the happy, thriving communities they’ve become.

Trust

For us, the most important people are the customers who choose our homes in which to build their future. Their satisfaction and confidence in us, from our very first meeting onwards, is a key measure of our success.

We’re proud of the independent surveys that consistently show our high levels of customer satisfaction. That’s the real barometer of our quality and our service.

Helping where we can

We invest everything into your customer journey – it’s designed not just to please you, but to exceed your expectations.

When you become a Miller customer, we’ll listen to you right from the start. From the day you first look around a showhome until long after you’ve moved in, we’re here to offer help and support. We’ve been doing this a long time so we have a vast amount of experience to draw on.

We don’t want you to just be satisfied, we want you to be proud of your new home and delighted by the whole experience. We want you to recommend us, too.

Pushing up standards

We frequently win awards for the quality of our homes. For their generous specification, skilful construction, beautiful locations, and for the teams that build them. We are acknowledged experts in the field. You can see the quality of our product and you will notice the quality of our service as we guide you through the many different ways of buying your home. It’s a customer journey that has taken 80 years to perfect.

We know the importance of workmanship and job satisfaction. We look after our teams, we train and employ the best people and we reward safe and careful practice.

Keeping you involved

First you’ll meet your sales adviser who will give you any help you need in choosing and buying your home. Then your site manager, who will supervise the build of your home and answer your questions along the way.

We’ll invite you to a pre-plaster meeting with your site manager during the construction of your new home, where you’ll get to see, first hand, the attention to detail, care and craftsmanship involved.

Wherever practical, we ask you to choose your own kitchen and bathroom including your own tiles, worktops, appliances and other options. Your home becomes personal to you long before we’ve finished building it.

A Better Place

We don’t just create more homes, we enhance locations with our developments. Places where people will make friends, enjoy family life and take pride in their neighbourhoods and surroundings. We even provide a unique www.mymillerhome.com website to keep you up to date on the build progress of your home and to help you get to know the area, your neighbours and live more sustainably once you’ve moved in.

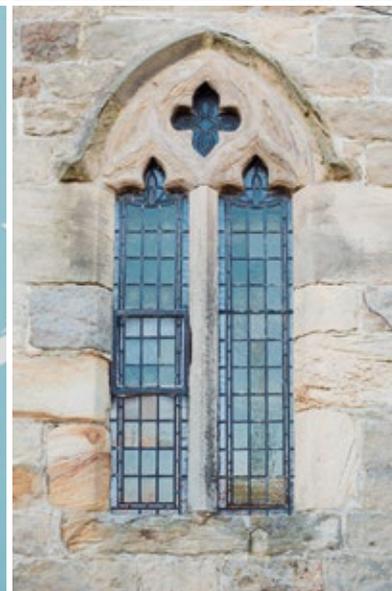

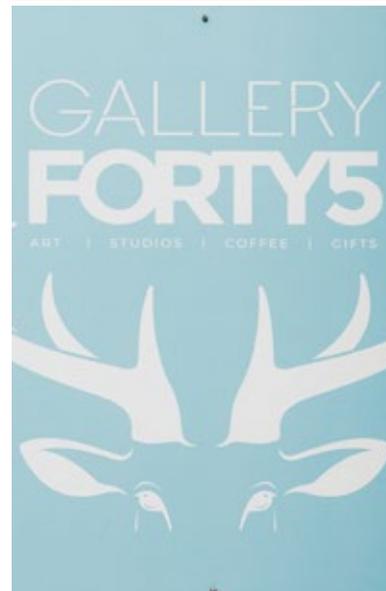

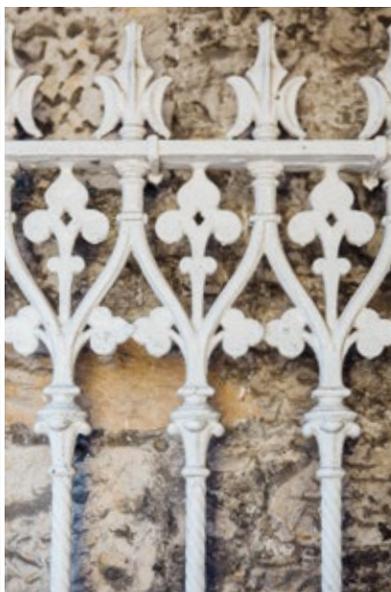

For your future

For us, success is building exceptional homes, in sustainable communities. And that’s how we’ve built a business that goes from strength to strength.

The village has a small selection of shops, all very highly regarded. They include an award-winning butcher's, R Green and Son, founded in 1888 by the great-grandfather of the present owner, and a Londis grocer, delicatessen, off-licence and general store that won the Countryside Alliance Village Shop and Post Office of the Year. It has been run by the present shopkeeper for more than 40 years. A newsagent, The Paper Shop, sits alongside The Running Fox café, renowned for its home baking and sandwiches.

There are two traditional pubs, the Village Inn and the Granby Inn, and every summer the village takes part in the Longframlington Music Festival, bringing together an eclectic range of musical styles and performers. Both Alnwick and Morpeth offer a wider and more comprehensive selection of shops and leisure activities.

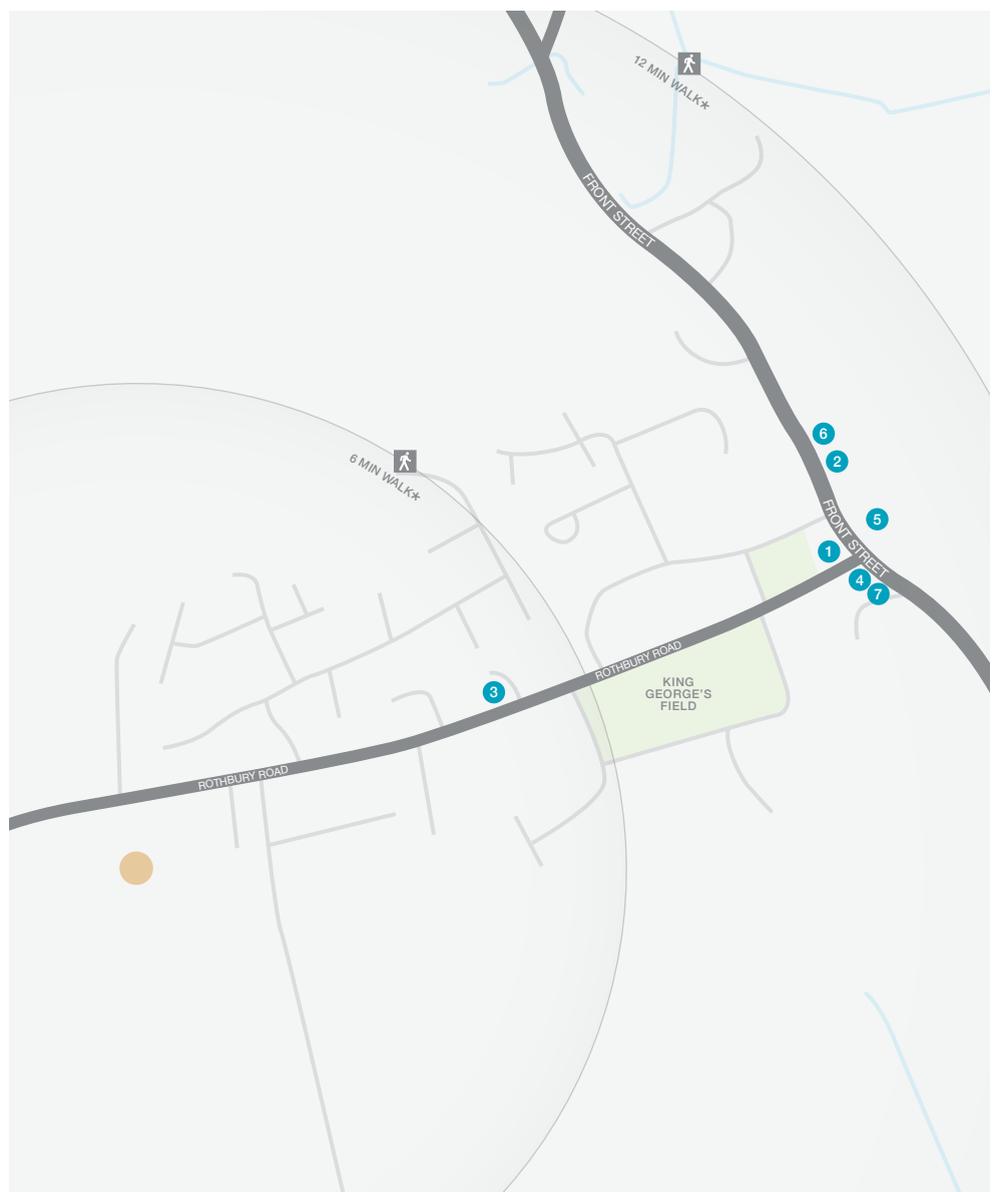

The surrounding countryside contains several unusual attractions. Craggside, the ornate home of a Victorian inventor, is filled with wonderful scientific curiosities. Northumberland Country Zoo is a family-run animal collection with more than 50 species housed on a 17 acre site. There are many large areas of woodland and open countryside to explore, including Longframlington Common, Shirlaw Pike with its panoramic views, the wild expanse and sandstone crags of Thrunton Wood, and several smaller, more local, parks and open areas. Northumberland National Park is just five miles to the west, and the choice of golfing facilities includes the Percy Wood Golf and Country Retreat.

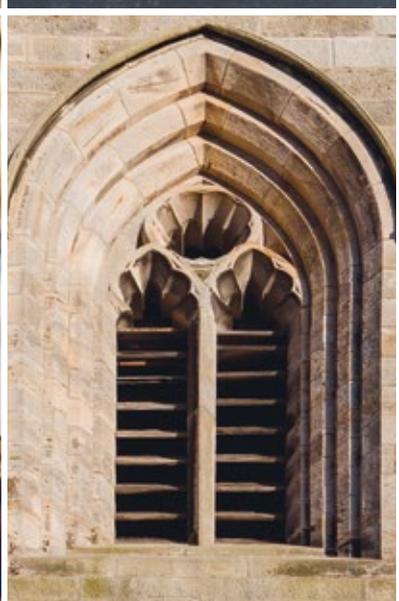

When you leave the car at home and explore the local area by foot or bicycle, you get to know it so much better. And by using local shops and services, you'll help to keep the neighbourhood vibrant and prosperous. Every place has its own personality, and once you move in you'll soon find your favourite walks, and the shops you like best. As a starting point this map shows some of the most useful features and services within a short stroll or bike ride.

The village is served by Swarland Primary School, located in open, green surroundings around four miles away, and by The Duchess's Community High School in Alnwick, which recently moved into a new multi-million pound home on the southern edge of the town. Longframlington Surgery, part of the Rothbury Medical Practice, is open on weekday mornings or afternoons.

The project is a new development which is currently under construction. Measurements provided have not been surveyed on-site. The measurements have been taken from architect's plans, and, as such, may be subject to variation during the course of construction. Not all the units described have been completed at the time of going to print and measurements and dimensions should be checked with the Sales Adviser and confirmed with solicitors.

Why Miller?

We've been building homes since 1934, that's three generations of experience. We've learned a lot about people and that's made a big difference to what we do and how we do it.

We're enormously proud of the homes we build, combining traditional craftsmanship with new ideas like low carbon technologies. The big difference is that we don't stop caring once we've finished the building, or when we've sold the house, or even once you've moved in. We're there when you need us, until you're settled, satisfied and inviting your friends round.

This brochure is printed on GaleriArt and contains material sourced from responsibly managed forests. It's certified by the Forest Stewardship Council, an organisation dedicated to promoting responsible forest management and manufacture of wood products. Like paper. It's a small thing, we know, but enough small things make a big difference. Please recycle this brochure and help make that difference.
